

FIDELIO

Internship

We are looking to employ up to two Investment Analysts on a full-time basis. As an Investment Analyst you will become an integral part of the deal team. Your day to day responsibilities are varied but will include financial modelling, analysis of investment opportunities, and transaction execution. Fidelio Capital emphasises active ownership and a part of your work will be in close cooperation with the management teams of our portfolio companies. We offer competitive compensation and for high performing candidates full time opportunities will be available.

Qualifications

- Candidates are preferably in their third, fourth or fifth year of university studies
- High proficiency in Microsoft Office, in particular Excel
- Previous work experience from investment banking, management consulting, private equity, or other relevant investment organisations is an advantage
- Fluency in English and Swedish

Ideal candidates have a genuine interest in business and investments, are energetic, motivated, and pay attention to detail. As you will be trusted with a lot of responsibility, you will be expected to take own initiatives and work independently.

Application

Please apply before 30th of September. However, as we are assessing candidates on an ongoing basis, we encourage early applications. Please submit your CV, academic transcript and high school grades to recruitment@fideliocapital.se. Should you have any questions feel free to contact Fredrik Blomberg at the email address above or at +46 (0) 768 66 38 62.
